SilverDoor triumphs again at Business Travel Awards

For the second consecutive year, SilverDoor, the world's largest independent serviced apartment agent, picked up the award for Best Serviced Apartment Provider at the Business Travel Awards.

After years of being nominated, last year was the first time SilverDoor walked away with the award and Managing Director, Marcus Angell, is delighted to have retained the honour: "I'm thrilled that SilverDoor has joined an exclusive list of companies to have won the title of Best Serviced Apartment Provider in successive years.

"Winning last year was a huge motivation to everyone at SilverDoor and gave us great confidence in what we're doing to grow as a company.

"We're always looking towards the future and 2016 is already looking set to be one of the most exciting and innovative years since starting the company in 2000."

The glittering awards ceremony, held at Grosvenor House Hotel, was a celebration of exceptional achievement in the business travel industry and judges were impressed by SilverDoor's commitment to continuous innovation. "The judges felt SilverDoor is anything but complacent, continuing to innovate and improve, and is seen as a model for others to follow."
